Numb. 6485

The London Gazette.

Published by Authority.

From Saturday June 25. to Tuesday June 28. 1726.

Leghorne, June 8, N. S.

THIS being His Britannick Majesty's Birth-Day, it was celebrated by Consul Skinner and the British Factory here with all Duty and Loyalty, the British Ships in the Port firing their Guns. 'Tis advised from Florence, that the Great Duke of Tuscany is in very good Health, and has of late been frequently at the Italian Comedy.

Paris, July 3, N. S. On the 25th past his Excellency Mr. Walpole, the British Ambassadour, had a private Audience of the King, being introduced by the Count de Monconseil, Introductor of Ambassadours. Circular Letters are issued for the holding of a General Assembly of the Clergy [illegible] which Assembly is to be opened the 25th of September next.

Whereas a Letter dated the 23d of this Instant June, and signed H. P. was sent to His Majesty's Secretary at War: If the Person who wrote the said Letter will attend at the War-Office in Whitehall on Thursday Morning next at Eleven of the Clock, and make out what is proposed in his Letter, he shall receive all due Encouragement and Protection.

H. Pelham.

June 28.

A Letter dated June 27 was left Yesterday in the Afternoon at the House of a Person in the City. The said Letter was signed with both Christian and Sirname, the first Letters of which are J. S. The Writer thereof is desired to come To-morrow Morning, between the Hours of Ten and Twelve, to the Person to whom the Letter was directed.

Trustees-Office, South Sea House, June 24, 1726.

Notice is hereby given to all such Persons who have entred their Claims before the Trustees for raising Money on the Estates of the late Sub-Governour, Deputy-Governour, Directors, Cashire, Deputy-Cashire, and Accountant of the South-Sea Company, and others, that the Time for the Court of Directors of the said Company declaring their Satisfaction in the Justice of such Claims will expire on the 24th Day of December next.

Advertisements.

Just Published, the two last Volumes of,

†‡† Mr. Pope's Homer's Odyssey.

Printed on large and small Paper, Folio. And in Twelves, with Cuts before each Book. To which is added, A large Post-script by Mr. Pope; wherein are a few Observations on the true Character and Stile of the Odyssey, That it is a Moral and Political Work, instructive to all Degrees of Men and Women, and fitted with Images, Examples, and Precepts of Civil and Domestick Life. Printed for B. Lintot, at the Cross-Keys between the Temple-Gates. Where may be had,

All Mr. Pope's Works, in Twelve Volumes in Folio, bound, gilt on the Back, the large for 12 Guineas, and the small Paper for seven Guineas per Sett.

BY Virtue of an Order from the Lord Great Chamberlain, This is to give Notice to all His Majesty's Justices of the Peace and others whom it may concern, within the Kingdom of England, that Francis Henry Lea, Esq; is, by His Majesty's Letters Patents, appointed Master of the Revels, and that therefore no Person do presume to give any Disturbance or Interruption to such as shall lawfully Act or do any thing in pursuance of any Licence or Licences granted from the Office of the said Master of the Revels. And that all Persons who shall prosecute any Stage Player, Players of Interludes, Mountebanks, Rope-Dancers, Horse-Doctors, Poppet-Shewers, and all others strolling and wandring up and down the Countries, Cities and Corporation Towns within the Kingdom of Great Britain, that shall have no License from the said Master of the Revels, and upon Conviction thereof, shall receive from the said Master of the Revels, at his Office in Somerset-House, London, the Sum of Two Guineas for every Person who shall be so convicted.

TO be Sold, pursuant to a Decree of the High Court of Chancery, before Robert Holford, Esq; one of the Masters of the said Court, The Mannor of Tottington and Eccles, together with the Mannor House and Buildings, and Land thereto belonging and used, situated in the Parishes of Aylesford and Burham, in Kent, in the Possession of Thomas Knowlden, at the Rent of 60 Pounds per Annum, being late the Estate of William Hodgkins, Esq; deceased. Particulars of the said Estate may be had at the said Master's Chambers in Symond's-Inn in Chancery-lane.

WHereas Richard Walker, Son and Heir of Gilbert Walker, of Scruton in Yorkshire, lately deceased, left his Parents about Seventeen Years ago, and sometime after became a Soldier in Colonel Newton's Regiment, in Captain